

Care about kids and families? Let your voice be heard, join the Virginia Parent Council!

The Virginia Parent Council (VPC) is being created to ensure that there is a parent voice in planning and implementing family services throughout the Commonwealth. The goal of the VPC is to have representation all over Virginia!

Criteria for Applicants:

- Received services from a family service agency for at least one year
- Have interest in organizational leadership
- Members will be selected based on their local and regional leadership abilities and their potential to become effective statewide parent advocates

Commitments:

- Members will serve a three year term
- Participate in Council conference calls scheduled every three months
- Volunteer for committees (optional but encouraged)

To apply, please contact Julie Rivnak-McAdam at CircleofParents@pcav.org or by phone at (804) 359-6166

