

Subject: Need your help spread the word: New Grant Support for Tuition

Hello Early Childhood Teachers/Instructional Assistants,

We are taking this opportunity to share with you an opportunity that is available through Virginia Commonwealth University's School of Education. Project 3IP, is a new project available through the US Department of Education starting in Fall, 2018

The grant provides tuition support for strong applicants who are interested in receiving teaching licensures and a Master of Education in Special Education with a concentration in Early Intervention and Early Childhood Special Education.

We are extending the application deadline. Applications are being taken on a rolling basis. We work to build a flexible class schedule for students who want to move forward in their career in this critically needed area.
